

THE U. P. ROAD.

A Foreclosure of the First Mortgage Threatened.

Nearly One Hundred Million Dollars Invested in the Scheme.

This Foreclosure Will Wipe Out All Other Debtholders, Including the Over $100,000,000 Which Will Be a Dead Loss.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—A special from Omaha says:

"The first chapter in a scheme involving nearly $100,000,000 will open Saturday, when a petition will be presented to Judge Sarnsbury in St. Louis for the foreclosure of the first mortgage on the main line of the Union Pacific railroad.

The petition is supposed to have been prepared at the instance of the treasury and of the first-mortgage bondholders in the office of Winslow S. Pierce, of New York.

It is supposed to embody the fact that, as the accruing indebtedness of the company, due July 1, will be nearly $100,000,000, and the earnings are constantly decreasing, it is proposed, in the interest of the first-mortgage bonds, that that mortgage be foreclosed.

This mortgage represents about $32,000,000, and the main line of the road, which it covers, is not expected to sell for that amount.

This will wipe out all other indebtedness, including the government's claim of $33,532,000, which will be a dead loss.

At the local headquarters of the company it was admitted that the petition would be filed Saturday.

Senator Thurston will be present as the representative of the receivers, who are expected to appear in the details connected with the foreclosure and the reorganization are completed.

It was declared at headquarters that unless the present session of congress took immediate measures to adjust the government's indebtedness on the Union Pacific, the foreclosure would be forced and the government then have no reason to interest itself further in the affairs of the company.

Those interested in protecting the interest of the government, however, assert that the proposed litigation is in the nature of a coercive measure, and intended to force congress to accept one of the bills now pending in the house for the settlement of the company's indebtedness. This Reilly measure, looking to the extension of the government's liability for the first ten years, on a more favorable basis is preferred.

It was said in Omaha Thursday night that the petition would be filed in St. Louis Saturday was prepared in the local headquarters, and that the whole matter is well understood between the alleged conflicting interests as intended to force congress to terms through the fear that the government would lose its entire interest unless it agree to the Reilly bill.

FAURE'S ELECTION.

What the French Newspaper Have to Say About It.

PARIS, Jan. 19.—The election of M. Felix Faure to the presidency of the French republic has been well received by the moderate press and is violently criticized by the radical and socialist newspapers.

The Journal Des Debats says it is gratified at the defeat of M. Reillon and that in electing M. Faure, who is a man of liberal and moderate mind and sound intellect, the national assembly placed the destinies of France in good hands.

The Radical is of the opinion that the election leaves matters in the condition of uncertainty and instability from which the republic is suffering.

M. Millerand, the socialist deputy and editor of the Petite Republique, says in his newspaper Felix Faure is not a man of a man who has neither intellect nor character nor particular worth.

The Lanter predicts the beginning of an era of violent reaction and failure. "Where Casimir-Perier failed Faure will also fail. We shall return to Versailles before the year expires."

The Freeholder goes to London.

DYER, Eng. Jan. 19.—The duke of Orleans and his suite left Dover for London Friday, M. de Bonval, the secretary of the duke, Friday said that the duke of Orleans was not willing to make any statement other than that contained in his letter to the press, and to an alleged interview with the duke of Orleans which was printed in England Thursday, M. de Bonval said that the duke had not conferred with a reporter and that the interview was a pure fabrication.

German View.

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—The National Zeitung says that M. Faure was only elected with the help of a majority of the senate, which was the fate of M. Casimir-Perier, whose political career is identical with that of M. Faure. The paper does not predict great permanence for the new presidency.

The Tagblatt says it expects that M. Faure's policy will be a pacific one. The question is, how long will he be able to withstand radicalism and socialism?

IN HAWAII.

Bob Wilcox Leads an Insurrectionary Movement.

A Fight Takes Place Between the Police and the Rebels.

Troops Retire and the Enemy Retreat—Many Rebels Killed—The Rebel Forces Taken in Another Fight—Insurrection Halted With Heavy Loss.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—The following news was received Friday by steamer Alameda:

HONOLULU, Jan. 19.—(Rebel Wilcox and Samuel Nowlin led half a thousand Kanakas and half-white royalists in open revolt against the Hawaiian republic, Sunday, January 18, about six miles from this city. The rebels were killed in the plan to surprise the city, which was immediately placed under martial law.

A fight took place at Diamond Head between the police and rebels, in which Charles L. Carter, a prominent young man, fell mortally wounded. When a strong force was sent from the city to the volcano ridges, pursued by the troops. Several royalists were killed by shot and shell. Many prisoners were taken, including John Lane, a half-white leader, who shot Carter.

On the 9th the troops attacked Wilcox's party of the enemy in a battle and routed them, with a loss of twenty killed. None of the troops were injured.

The insurrection is completely crushed and the rebels who were engaged in the fighting have dispersed. The majority of troops have come from the front. One hundred are still guarding the valley entrances and looking for Wilcox and his men. Nothing has been seen or heard of any rebel for twenty-four hours. Wilcox has probably escaped through Kalihi toward Ewa and is seeking to get off the island.

The government caused the arrest of scores of royalists suspected and known to have aided in the insurrection. Military operations are probably at an end, but the guarding of the city under martial law may be continued some days longer. The royalists were supplied with arms and ammunition from vessels. Grave alarm has also been caused by large bodies of Japanese landed in the plantations rising in mutiny.

A FALSE "TRUSTY."

Believe Guard and Liberated Prisoners, that a Murderer Would Not.

PERRY, O. T., Jan. 19.—Four prisoners were taken from the county jail Friday morning about 3 o'clock. A negro trusty named Peter Jeffers caught Jim Grinstead, the night guard, and then killed and escaped him by staff and old paper and other things into his mouth. The trusty then tried off the locks turned on the main door, who stole several pistols. They then unlocked the front door of the jail and looked it on the outside, leaving the guard and the trusty.

Grinstead managed to get near the cell of Marion Gardner, the accused murderer of A. R. Younce, and Gardner seized the hands of the guard and got the slyman, Gardner and Jim Hopkins, accused of horse-stealing, refused to leave the jail. The escaped men were taken to the county jail by Sheriff Jones and Owen Harkins, all charged with highway robbery. The sheriff has a posse in pursuit.
